TIME : 29th July 2016 @ 12:00 noon
RESOURCE PERSONS :
1. Mr. Lalramsanga,
Chief Judicial Magistrate, Siaha District Court, Siaha
2. Ms. Zino Hlychoo, Counsellor, MSACS, Siaha.

The seminar began exactly at 12:00 noon at the college auditorium. There are 300 participants in the seminar including the teaching faculties and the students of the college and different journalists of Siaha district.

The chairperson of the seminar Dr. Chawngkhuma Chawngthu, Member Secretary of the Grievances and Redressal Cell introduced the resource persons and journalists at the beginning of the seminar. It was followed by welcoming speech by Mr. Lallawma Bawitlung, Principal, Govt. Saiha College. After the welcoming speech was over, Mr. Lalramsanga presented a paper on different laws on sexual harassments and other related issues which was followed by an interaction time on which many questions were asked from the participants. The resource person answers the doubts of the participants very nicely. After this, a popular singer of the District Ms. Chhingpuii Azyu was singing a very melodious song.

After this, there was a short break for refreshment. When the refreshment was over, the chairperson invited the next resource person Ms. Zino Hlychho and she presents a paper on sex education and its related issues. The resource person presented her topic very fluently in a very interesting manner and the participants were all attentively listening to her. After good interaction time was over, another popular singer Mr. Khokhei chozah present a song which was followed by Vote of thanks from Mrs. H. Lalrinfeli, member of the Grievances and redressal cell, Govt. Saiha College.

To close the seminar, certificate was distributed to the participants which was prepared by the Organising committee.

The seminar was found to be very fruitful as there was good interaction programme. The programme was also broadcasted by local channels within the state and doordarshan Kendra along with various newspapers.
